WILLIAM BELL of Paxton, great-grandfather of John H. Bell

The earliest known ancestor of the family is William Bell, who settled in what is now Susquehanna Twp, Dauphin Co, Pa before 1738. His 203-acre farm was 3.5 miles northeast of the present state capitol. The farm to the west was warranted by John Scott Jun 8-1738 and surveyed for him Jun 5-1740. On the Scott survey William Bell is listed as living to the east. The farm east of William Bell was warranted May 6-1738. The shape of the tracts shows that they were all marked out about the same time. The land had been purchased from the Indians in 1736. William, for some reason, did not warrant his land until May 9-1763. It was surveyed May 20-1763 and patented May 28-1773. Perhaps the stone house standing on the farm today was built in 1763. This may have made William aware of his deficient land title.

William Bell was a farmer and an elder in the Presbyterian church. Tradition says that he was Scotch-Irish. In 1745 he became a member of the New-Side Presbyterian group, under John Roan as minister. The Roan account book (Dauphin Co Histl Socy) which runs from 1746 to 1764 lists William each year. His annual contribution was 10 shillings ($1.33). The Old and New-Side congregations united in 1775. William Bell's name appears on the scattered tax records which are in existence from 1749 to 1782. In 1750 he was tax collector; in 1761 overseer of the poor. In Nov 1753 he signed a road petition; on Jul 22-1754 (18 days after the fall of Fort Necessity) he signed a petition for protection against the Indians. Arthur Bell, a son, in his pension application says that in 1776 he was living at the same place where he was born in 1753.

The name of William's wife is not known. His will lists 11 children:

1. John Bell b 1732 d Aug 1810 Cecil Twp, Washington Co, Pa
m c1762 Elizabeth Boyd b 1735 d c1800

11. Andrew Bell b c1755 left 1784, no further record (gomery b Sep 2-1768

All of William's sons and two of his grandsons served in the Revolution from what are now Cumberland, Dauphin and Mifflin Cos. William Bell's will was written Aug 18-1780 and probated Nov 22-1783. Andrew's power of attorney on file at Harrisburg lists the date of William's death as Oct 29-1783. The estate inventory lists: 1 horse, saddle & bridle; 2 prs pot racks; wearing apparel; 3 pewter dishes & 10 plates; 2 pots & 2 prs pot hooks; 1 pr fire tongs; 2 chairs; 1 iron heckle; 2 bedsteads; 1 corner cupboard; 1 walnut chest; 1 walnut table; 1 bay colt; 1 black cow; 1 black heifer; 1 red heifer; 1 iron harrow; 3 cider vessels. This list is on file at Lancaster, Pa.

The sons sold the farm in 1786 for $1200. John was then living in what is now Frankford Twp, Cumberland Co, Pa; George, Thomas and Arthur in what is now Decatur Twp, Mifflin Co, Pa; William, Jr near the old farm in Paxton. All were farmers, except Thomas a carpenter, and William later a judge in Erie Co, Pa. John moved to Frankford in 1772 (Big Spring); to Cecil in 1803; sons Robert, William Joseph, George, John, Thomas, Andrew. Arthur and Thomas moved to Decatur in 1780; to Barree 1787. Thomas had sons George, William. Arthur moved from Barree to N Y in 1802; he had a son William. William moved to Erie in 1799; his sons were John and William.

GEORGE BELL of Jacks Valley, grandfather of John H. Bell

George Bell was a small boy when his father settled at Paxton. About 1758 he married Mary Bell, likely a cousin. In 1760 and 1762 he paid to the support of the minister, John Roan. About 1766 he moved to Dry Valley, now Derry Twp, Mifflin Co, Pa. The first year (1767) that taxes were assessed he had 100 acres, 5 cleared, 3 horses, 2 cows. In 1768 he was a Road Supervisor and in 1769 an Overseer of the Poor. The land on which George Bell lived was surveyed Jul 3-1768 in the name of his brother, Arthur. On Mar 30-1768 Arthur Forster had applied for it in the name of Arthur Bell. Bell sold the land to Forster in 1774.

In 1773 George Bell moved to Jacks Valley, now Decatur Twp, Mifflin Co (Deed Book II, p 19). On May 6 of that year he improved 83 1/4 acres which had been surveyed for John Birchall, Jeremiah Cresson and William Wallace in 1767 and 1768. Soon after 1786 George Bell acquired title, but the deed has not been found. The Northumberland Co-Cumberland Co line ran through this farm, with the log house in the former county. The northern part was in Northumberland Co until 1813; the southern part in Cumberland Co until 1789. George Bell or his sons occupied this land until his death in 1816.

The name of George Bell appears on the Flying Camp roll of Capt Reed of Paxton in 1776 along with that of his brother, Arthur. There is no proof that he served. On Jul 31-1777 George Bell was named captain of Co 8 of the Fifth Battalion of Cumberland (now Mifflin) Co militia. His son John was ensign. This company marched against the Indians in Penns Valley (now Centre Co) in April 1778. They were stationed near Bald Eagle. Arthur Bell (pension S20738) says that he served under his brother, Capt George Bell. "They were marched from Jacks Valley to a place called Bald Eagle to defend the inhabitants from Indians, and from there they were taken to Potters Fort." Jacks Valley was "a frontier settlement - much exposed to the inroads of the savages".

On May 9-1778 Arthur Buchanan wrote from what is now Lewistown: "I this moment received by Robert Moor, Express a Letter from Capn. Bell stationed at Bald Eagle which informs me that Simon Vaugh one of his Company was killed on the 8th instant, at the house of Jones Davis, upon Bald Eagle Creek." Buchanan asked for ammunition and arms. On May 17 James Potter wrote from Upper Fort: "The Bearer Major Miles goes to you to apply for men to relieve Capt. Bell." By June Bell and his company had returned home.

Sometime before 1780 George Bell moved his family to Paxton. His son, John, and brothers, Arthur and Thomas, lived on the farm. In May 1782 the Indians captured George Sigler, Jr, 20-year old son of a neighbor. In 1781-82 George and his brother, William, are listed as privates in Capt Stewart's Paxton company. George Bell returned to Jacks Valley about 1786. In 1790 a road was laid out from George Bell's in Jacks Valley, to George Sigler's sawmill, by Christopher Martin's (Burnham) to Lewistown. That same year a Presbyterian church was started in Little Valley (now Vira), seven miles southwest of Bell's. The will of George Bell was written Dec 29-1815 and probated Apr 15-1816. It names 10 chn:

WILLIAM BELL of Belltown, father of John H. Bell

William Bell was born about 1763 at Paxton. After his marriage to Margaret (Peggy) McCartney, he settled on a part of his father's farm and spent the rest of his life. Margaret was a daughter of John and Sibella McCartney. John, a blacksmith, died in 1787 in what is now Juniata Co, Pa. The settlement on the original George Bell land became known as Belltown. Thompson G Bell wrote:

My grandfather, William Bell and his wife, Peggy McCartney, were members of the Little Valley Presbyterian Church and were very consistent Christian members. My grandmother was a woman of strong faith, very conscientious in the discharge of duty and more than average in activity in the cause of religion. William's son, Johnston, was named for James Johnston, the first Little Valley minister. William died in the fall of 1827. His eight children are named in a Mifflin Co Orphans Court record dated Jan 22-1820:

JOHN HENDERSON BELL of Decatur

John Henderson Bell was born Nov 13-1791; married Aug 22-1810 to Mary Sigler (whose father, George, had been captured by the Indians in May 1782 and held for a year); died Jun 8-1838. His son, Thompson G Bell wrote of him:

My father, John H. Bell, when married settled on a tract of land given to my mother by her father, George Sigler. Here he lived and raised a family of 12 children, giving them the best that a common school system could. He and mother connected with the Presbyterian Church at Vira. He was a good Christian man always wherever he was. He was an active worker in the church and a leading man in the community where he lived, always looking out and doing work for the Master. When he was leading prayer meetings, he would often exhort those present with great earnestness. His home was always a quiet retreat for the minister of all denominations. He was superintendent of the first Sabbath School at Vira. He was a man of prayer. My father was among the first to sign the temperance pledge at Vira. This was in 1830. In 1834 he and Samuel Barr were the first school directors for the new public school system. John H Bell and his wife are buried at Vira.

Mary Sigler was a daughter of George Sigler, Jr, born Feb 17-1762 Alexandria Twp, Hunterdon Co, N J, died Aug 3-1821 Decatur Twp (son of George and Elizabeth Sigler - George moved to Decatur in 1775, died 1790) and Elizabeth Bunn, born Sep 17-1768 Hunterdon Co, died May 19-1811 (daughter of Jacob 1736-1808 and Mary Elizabeth 1744-1817 Bunn of Hunterdon Co).

Of John Henderson Bell's twelve children three died young; two have no living descendants. Sibella married Robert Kinsloe of Newton Hamilton, Pa. Only the John H Kinsloe, Jr branch remains. Adaline married Henry Haller and moved to Hillsboro, Ill. Only the Brell branch remains. There are many descendants of the other two daughters: Matilda Hinds and Sarah Martin. Matilda married Stephen Hinds and lived near Newton Hamilton. Stephen died on a visit to Iowa in 1867. Matilda died at her brother, Thompson's, 17 years later. Sarah married Francis Martin and moved to Hammond, Ill. "Frank" was a pioneer on the Illinois prairie and an old-style Methodist class leader. Sarah was kind-hearted and sensible; always ready to help her neighbors.

William Sigler Bell purchased his father's farm and spent the rest of his life there. He was a staunch Presbyterian all his life, a good singer, possessing a tenor voice of unusual sweetness; a leader of the singing in his church for many years. He "had a personality that those who knew him could never forget. His was a kind, generous nature combined with firm discipline for himself and others which made his standard high. He had no mercy on slipshod teachers, preachers, musicians, farmers, and others who met with disapproval. But if he saw improvement in someone trying to learn, he encouraged them. William, as a young man, had taught public school and evening singing school. He liked to ride horseback and was a striking figure, as he sat erect as any general who had taken training. He was a thrifty farmer, made a good living, was honest in all his dealings. He is buried in the Vira Presbyterian cemetery by his father.

Thompson George Bell taught school and singing school from 1834 to 1841. Originally a Presbyterian, he became a Methodist after his marriage to Priscilla Martin, a Methodist. His son, Martin, wrote of him:

As a man and citizen he was a born leader; a man of strong character and very influential in the community; a cautious, correct business man, clerking many sales and settling up many estates, thus handling much money for others of which he never lost a dollar. As a leader in church work he was a living epistle known and read of all men. Gifted and earnest in exhortation, prayer and song, his natural place was at the front first and always. He led the church music for many years. Morning and night his prayer went up from the home altar for those present and absent. Firm yet not severe, kind yet not overindulgent he set an example that has been an inspiration to all. He died at the Brown House, Vira in 1889 and is buried in the Methodist cemetery.

John McCartney Bell supplemented his common school education with a course at Tuscarora Academy. He was always interested in education. He began teaching in early manhood and for many years followed this occupation in the winter and farmed in the summer. He was an efficient worker in the Presbyterian Church. He was a gifted singer with a strong baritone voice. A man much admired and esteemed by all, he was noted for his gentleness and friendliness. "He served two terms as County Supt. of Public Schools (Mifflin Co) and in 1872 purchased Kishacoquillas Seminary, west of Reedsville. The Seminary was both home for the family and school for two or more of the children until 1879, when it passed into other hands." In 1885 he moved to Mount Union, Pa and with his son, W T, established an insurance business. He died in 1887 and is buried at Mount Union.

John Henderson Bell had eleven Bell grandsons who grew to maturity: Martin, Clark and Gruber were farmers in Mifflin Co; Howard was a physician in Mifflin Co; Ellis, Foster and Vernon were ministers in central Penna; George, Will and Bates were business men in Penna; Henry moved to Minnesota.

The first history of the family was written in 1887 by Thompson G Bell. This was published with additions by his daughter, Laura, in 1912. Raymond Martin Bell published histories in 1929 and 1941. The 1941 volume THE BELL FAMILY was issued 150 years after the birth of John Henderson Bell. Twenty-five years later it is republished in condensed form with the list of descendants brought up to date. Our thanks go to the many who have helped.

In 1916 the family numbered about 300; in 1941 600; now in 1966 two hundred years after the Bells settled in Mifflin Co it numbers 1200. The descendants began holding reunions in 1929, largely through the efforts of J Ellis Bell. In 1942 an annual Bell Round Robin letter was started. Reunion presidents:

The data on pages 14-19 are taken from GRANDMA AND HER FAMILY (Mary Ellen Hinds Drake Dicken) by Naomi Drake Miller, 1952.
Bernice Gray has brought the records up to date. This is the largest branch of the John Henderson Bell family. It meets in a yearly reunion in Iowa about June 23, Grandma's birthday.
